

Did You Know...

The Northern Middlesex County Regional Domestic Violence Team is here to help assist victims and their families, while serving the communities of Edison, Metuchen and students and faculty attending Middlesex County College by assisting their police departments, who are investigating cases of domestic violence. We are an all-volunteer organization that provides 24 hour/365 days a year support to families who are living in households with domestic violence.

If you think someone you care about is in an abusive relationship, here are some signs to look out for:

- Physical abuse – injuries and bruises
- Verbal abuse - put downs or makes you feel worthless
- Change in personality
- Afraid to make own or not allowed to make own decisions
- Nervousness about the person they are dating
- Isolation from family and friends

Please contact us at 732-248-7375 for more information.

Don't Judge Your Future Destination by Your Current Location

Volunteers Needed: The Northern Middlesex County Regional Domestic Violence Response Team, who serves the communities of Edison and Metuchen, along with the students and faculty attending Middlesex County College. We are presently recruiting volunteers for the team. Members provide support, information, and services as well as referrals at time of crisis. Applicants must be 18 years of age or older with a valid driver's license, possess good communication skills in the English language (A second language is helpful) and submit to a mandatory background check. Forty (40) training hours are provided and required. Please call the DV office at 732-248-7375, leave your name, phone number along with any other contact information and someone from the team will contact you with information and schedule an interview.