B. Describe below the nature of the constraints imposed by the physical characteristics of the property.

The wood rot discovered by the applicant's contractor made it necessary to replace more than 50% of the existing dwelling, triggering the need for variances for the pre-existing front yard setback.

C. Describe below any other exceptional conditions of the property that prevent the applicant from complying with the Zoning Ordinance.

In order to obtain compliance with the ordinance, the front of the existing dwelling house would have to be removed.

D. Describe below how not granting this variance request would impose difficulties or undue hardship upon you.

See "C" above.

E. Describe below how the granting of the variance request will not result in substantial detriment to the public good nor substantially impair the intent and purpose of the Zone Plan and the Zoning Ordinance.

The Master Plan, Green Development checklist encourages the rehabilitation of existing housing Stock. The granting of the variance requested would allow this objective to be advanced.
