Pioneering American modernist Georgia O'Keeffe conveyed a distinct sense of place with innovative depictions of her surroundings. Flowers and plants were subjects that engaged her throughout her career. This landmark exhibition, of over 15 paintings, will offer a rare focus on O'Keeffe's depictions of Hawai'i from a nine-week sojourn in 1939 while on commission to produce images for a Hawaiian Pineapple Company promotional campaign.

*After visiting the exhibit, the bus will depart for Arthur Ave.
("Little Italy" in the Bronx!)
Venture out on your own for lunch and shopping at the great Italian markets.*
